

CHRISTMAS

Riddles

Q: What do you call a snowman with a six-pack?

A: An abdominal snowman!

Q: What does Santa suffer from if he gets stuck in a chimney?

A: Claus-trophobia!

Q: Once I was a liquid, then I was gas, now I am a solid, but it won't last. What am I?

A: Snow!

Q: What kind of pictures do elves take?

A: Elfies!

Q: What do elves learn in school?

A: The elf-abet!

Q: What has nine antlers and a bright red nose?

A: Santa's Sleigh!

Q: What did the gingerbread man put on his bed?

A: A cookie sheet!

Q: What do snowmen eat for breakfast?

A: Snowflakes!

Q: How many presents can Santa fit in an empty sack?

A: Only one - after that, it's not empty anymore!

Q: When does Christmas come before Thanksgiving?

A: In the dictionary!

A: When the elf started his music career, he took the name he was best known for back at Santa's gift shop. What was it?

Q: Lil' Wrapper!

A: I am a sock you don't wear, but I am filled from here to there. What am I?

Q: A stocking!

A: I am cold and wet, but don't let me inside. When the sun came out, I cried and cried. What am I?

Q: A snowman!

A: I'm up, then down, and up once more. I'm covered in fir that sheds to the floor. What am I?

Q: A Christmas Tree!

A: My buttons make for a delightful treat. To keep me running, you might eat my feet. What am I?

Q: A gingerbread man!